Armstrong School District Title I Services

Title I is a federally funded project that provides supplemental reading instruction to eligible students in the elementary grades. Supplemental reading instruction from Title I teachers is available to all students in grades K through 6 who demonstrate a need for this instruction. Instruction includes intervention support in skill areas of phonemic awareness, phonics, word study, vocabulary, fluency, and comprehension. Title I instruction supplements and does not replace regular classroom instruction. The Title I teachers are certified reading specialists who work closely with classroom teachers to develop appropriate interventions. In the Armstrong School District, Title I services are provided as Targeted Assistance Programs in all elementary schools.

Title I instruction is part of the regular education program schedule and may take place in the regular classroom or in the Title I classroom.

In a Targeted Assistance School students are identified using multiple assessments. Title I teachers work with classroom teachers to provide supplemental reading instruction and interventions during the school day to eligible students. Reading instruction is based on the individual needs of the students.

Supplementary instruction may occur in small flexible groups that meet three to five times per week, one-on-one sessions, or in the whole class setting. Parents are kept informed of their children’s progress through assessment and progress reports, and parent conferences. Parents are informed about the Title I Program through parent workshops, take-home information, the district website, and planning meetings. Parents are also informed of their children’s progress through the electronic parent portal, which allows monitoring of their children’s grades in real time. Those who do not have Internet access can request hard copies of the information on a regular basis.

All parents of Title I students have the opportunity to be involved in federal programs planning. Parents are invited to attend a fall Annual Title I Parent Meeting at your child’s school to learn about Title I programs and share ideas for parent and family engagement projects. During this fall meeting, parents will be asked to review the School’s Title I Parent and Family Engagement Plan, School Parent Compact, and School’s Title I Transition Plan. Parents are asked to review and assist in designing strategies for increasing parental involvement. At the annual Title I District meeting, held in the spring, parents review the District Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy and Title I Transition Plan.

If you would like more information about Title I programs or would like to add parent input to our program, please contact Dr. Cheryl Soloski, Assistant Superintendent at 724-548-6026 or CSoloski@asd.k12.pa.us.
Title I Assessment Descriptors

Students who receive Title I services are administered various reading assessments. The results of these assessments are used by teachers to plan effective reading instruction to increase students' reading achievement. Results of these assessments are shared with parents/guardians. Following is a description of the various assessments used by the reading specialists.

A. Dynamic Indicators of Basic Early Literacy Skills (DIBELS)
(Grades K-6)

The Dynamic Indicators of Basic Early Literacy Skills (DIBELS) are a set of standardized, individually administered measures of early literacy development. They are designed to be short (one minute) fluency measures used to regularly monitor the development of pre-reading and early reading skills. Basic Early Literacy Skills include the following:

Phonemic Awareness: Hearing and using sounds in spoken words

Phonics: The system of letter-sound relationships that serves as the foundation for decoding words in print

Alphabetic Principle and Basic Phonics: The concept that printed letters correspond to the sounds of spoken words. Knowing the most common sounds of consonants and vowels and sounding out phonetically regular vowel/consonant and consonant/vowel/consonant words

Advanced Phonics and Word Attack Skills: Knowing all of the sounds for letters and letter combinations and sounding our written words

Accurate and Fluent Reading of Connected Text: Reading stories and passages easily and confidently with few mistakes

Vocabulary and Language Skills: Understanding and correctly using a variety of words

Reading Comprehension: Understanding what is read

Description of Individual Dibels Next Assessments

First Sound Fluency (FSF) (Kindergarten)

First Sound Fluency is a measure of phonological awareness that assesses a child’s ability to recognize and produce the sound in an orally presented word. The teacher says words and the student says the first sound for each word.
Letter Naming Fluency (LNF) (Grades K and 1)

Letter Naming Fluency is a measure of letter naming proficiency. Students are presented with a page of upper and lower case letters arranged in a random order and are asked to name as many letters as they can in one minute.

Phoneme Segmentation Fluency (PSF) (Grades K and 1)

Phoneme Segmentation Fluency is a measure of phonological awareness that assesses a student's ability to segment (break apart) words that contain three or four phonemes (individual sounds). In this task, the teacher says, "sat" and the student says, "/s/ /a/ /t/ ". Phoneme segmentation is a strong predictor of later reading achievement.

Nonsense Word Fluency (NWF) (Grades K and 1)

Nonsense Word Fluency is a test of alphabetic principle (letter-sound correspondence and the ability to blend letters into words). In this task students are presented with a series of words with a vowel/consonant/vowel pattern and are asked to verbally produce the word or the distinct sounds that make up the word. An example of a nonsense word is "rav".

Dibels Oral Reading Fluency (DORF) (Grades 1 – 3)

Oral Reading Fluency is a test of accuracy and fluency with connected text. Students are asked to read a series of grade level passages. Teachers collect information regarding the number of words that a student correctly reads in one minute.

Daze (Grades 3-6)

In the Daze comprehension assessment, the student is presented with a reading passage where some words are replaced by a multiple choice box that includes the original word and two distracters. The student reads the passage silently and selects the word in each box that best fits the meaning.

B. Quick Phonics Screener (K-4)

The Quick Phonics Screener (QPS) is a phonics assessment that can be used to diagnose students' strength and instructional needs in phonics and decoding skills. Teachers use this information to make instructional decisions and monitor their progress at different times across the school year. Reading specialists use a variety of phonics assessments to gauge students' level of phonics skills.
C. Running Records (K-3)

The Running Record is a tool that helps teachers identify patterns in students’ reading behaviors. These patterns allow a teacher to see the strategies (i.e. re-reading, word substitutions) students use to make meaning of individual words or texts as a whole. During this assessment, students read aloud and the teacher closely observes what students do and say as they read.

D. Qualitative Reading Inventory (QRI) (Grades 1-6)

The QRI is a reading assessment that is comprised of both fiction and non-fiction passages and graded word lists. The QRI assesses students’ reading abilities related to oral and silent reading and listening comprehension. Students respond by retelling or answering questions after reading. Comprehension is measured by analyzing students’ responses.

E. Group Reading Assessment and Diagnostic Evaluation (GRADE)

The GRADE assessment is a diagnostic reading assessment that determines what reading skills students have mastered and where students need instruction or supplemental reading interventions. Reading skills such as phonemic awareness, phonics, vocabulary, fluency, and reading/listening comprehension are assessed. Results of this assessment are used to pinpoint students’ strengths and weaknesses to plan targeted reading intervention support.

F. Wilson Assessment for Decoding and Encoding WADE (Grades 2-6)

The WADE assessment is used with the Wilson Reading Program. The assessment is used to evaluate students’ mastery of reading skills and assesses their ability to independently apply decoding and encoding skills. Decoding is the process of sounding out words in text. Encoding is the process of using letter/sound knowledge to write words.
Title I Reading Intervention Programs

Leveled Literacy Intervention (Grades K – 4)

The Fountas and Pinnell Leveled Literacy System (LLI) is a small group supplementary intervention designed for primary students who find reading and writing difficult. LLI is designed to help students reach grade level in 14 – 18 weeks of systematic intervention support. Leveled books are a key component in this program and are used to help children become competent readers and writers.

Wilson Fundations (K-3)

Wilson Fundations is a systematic word study, spelling, and phonological/phonemic awareness program. Fundations is based on the Wilson Reading System principles and serves as a prevention program to reduce reading and spelling failures. Wilson Reading Program, based on Orton Gillingham multi-sensory philosophy, provides a plan in which students receive instruction in learning to hear sounds, manipulating color-coded sound, syllable and word cards; performing finger-tapping exercises to assist in phonemic awareness; writing dictated words and sentences; reading aloud; and paraphrasing selections they read, and which are read to them. The unique sound tapping system helps students learn to differentiate the phonemes in a word in order to apply the decoding and encoding skills learned.

Lexia Reading/Core 5 (Grades K – 6)

Lexia Reading is a supplementary software program designed to help students acquire and improve basic reading skills. The program provides independent practice in phonological awareness, phonics, word recognition, and comprehension. It is recommended that students use the program for 30 minutes per week depending on the skill level of the student.

Wilson Reading Program (Grades 3 –6)

The Wilson Reading Program provides extensive instruction in phonemic awareness, phonics, fluency, vocabulary, and comprehension. It serves as an intervention to assist students in grades 3 –6 learn the structure of words and language by directly instructing them to decode and encode (spell) fluently. Wilson Reading Program, based on Orton Gillingham multi-sensory philosophy, provides a plan in which students receive instruction in learning to hear sounds, manipulating color-coded sound, syllable and word cards; performing finger-tapping exercises to assist in phonemic awareness; writing dictated words and sentences; reading aloud; and paraphrasing selections they read, and which are read to them. The unique sound tapping system helps students learn to differentiate the phonemes in a word in order to apply the decoding and encoding skills learned.

In addition to providing targeted instruction in the area of phonemic awareness, the Wilson Reading Program also focuses on phonics. Instruction begins with the presentation of initial phonemes, short vowels, and consonants. Progression to multiple sounds evolves and students learn sight words from lists that correspond with each lesson. In order to build fluency, students read and reread word lists, sentences, and decodable stories. Vocabulary words are introduced in isolation and used in cumulative review sessions. Comprehension is taught through visualization techniques that students use during reading from controlled text. By breaking the story into smaller units, teachers show students how to link words to prior knowledge using the think aloud strategy.

CARS/STARS (Grades K – 6)

CARS & STARS is a powerful combination of assessment and instruction that works effectively together to improve every student's reading comprehension. This reading intervention program provides direct instruction and practice opportunities in key components of reading comprehension. The 12 core comprehension strategies (i.e. main idea, locating details in text, drawing conclusions and inferences) are assessed and specific lessons are provided to help build students’ comprehension skills using fiction and non-fiction passages.

Reading Excellence: Word Attack and Rate Development Strategies (REWARDS) (Grades 3 – 6)

REWARDS is an intense short-term intervention reading program that is specifically designed for students in grades 4-6 who have mastered basic phonics skill, but lack the fluency to read extended passages. REWARDS provides direct instruction for decoding multi-syllable words in order to build reading accuracy and fluency. The lessons are explicit, yet flexible, with a high level of teacher/student interaction. The program is designed to teach a flexible strategy that is easily remembered and applied by students, allowing them to decode words up to eight parts. Students are taught to move from overt (circling and underlining word parts and vowel sounds) to covert (recognizing word parts and vowel sounds). Students also develop fluency skills by reading passages and charting words per minute.

Visualizing and Verbalizing for Language Comprehension and Thinking and Seeing Stars (Grades 4 – 6)

The Visualizing and Verbalizing Program (V/V) is a program designed to develop students’ comprehension skills by promoting their use of concept imagery. Students who have difficulty with oral or written language expression and have weak reading comprehension skills may benefit from this program. The V/V Program improves students’ language comprehension, reasoning for critical thinking, expressive language skills, and writing skills. V/V utilizes an imaging process that moves from smaller units of language to larger units of language (i.e word, sentence, paragraph).

Seeing Stars is a supplemental intervention program designed to instruct and improve students’ phonemic awareness, sight word knowledge, phonics, fluency, and spelling through the development of symbol imagery (the ability to visualize letters in words). The instructional sequence includes practice activities to assist students in visualizing letters, syllables, sight words, spelling patterns, and affixes. The kit includes consonant and vowel cards, syllable cards for single and multi-syllable words, vocabulary lists, and spelling charts.
Instructional Resources to support independent reading opportunities for students:

Reading A-Z (Grades 1 – 3)

Reading A-Z is a program that provides reading stories at different grade levels to promote independent reading. The stories are both fiction and non-fiction. Non-fiction stories contain factual information. These stories are on a variety of interesting topics.
Kindergarten & Grades 1 & 2: Title I Reading Intervention Program

Title I Intervention provided at the Kindergarten & Grades 1 & 2 levels consists of small group and individual instruction to promote Early Literacy Development. Students are identified by classroom teachers and reading specialist for intervention through the use of multiple assessment tools. Kindergarten & Grades 1 & 2 assessment tools may include the following:

- DIBELS Next
- Beginning of Year and End of Year Benchmark Assessments (SuperKids)
- Quarterly Skills Progress Assessments (SuperKids)
- SuperKids Decodable Words
- Quick Phonics Screener
- Leveled Literacy Intervention Benchmark Assessments

In addition, classroom grades are examined to identify students who are in need of supplemental reading instruction.

Identified students work with the Title I teacher to develop phonological awareness through rhyming activities, practice in segmenting, blending and deletion of phonemes (sounds); and exposure to rich, quality literature. Students are given direct instruction in phonics (sound-symbol relationships) and word study, high frequency words, fluency, vocabulary, and reading and listening comprehension.

Students are encouraged to read many books during these early literacy years to apply their reading skills. Parents can support the reading achievement of their child by asking him/her about the books they are reading. Encourage your child to read at least 20 minutes each night. Children are eager to share the books they are reading and this sharing opportunity helps children learn to love books and find joy in reading.

Classroom teachers and Title I reading specialists meet on a regular basis to discuss the reading progress of students who receive Title I supplemental reading services.
Grades 3 – 6: Title I Reading Intervention Program

Title I Intervention provided at the Grade 3 – 6 levels consists of small group and individual instruction to promote reading and language skills. Students are identified by classroom teachers and reading specialist for intervention through the use of multiple assessment tools. Grade 3 - 6 assessment tools may include the following:

- DIBELS Next DAZE
- National Geographic Reading Benchmarks/Assessments
- Quick Phonics Screener
- Leveled Literacy Intervention Benchmark Assessments

Identified students work with the Title I teacher to develop advanced decoding skills, oral reading fluency, comprehension, vocabulary, test taking skills, writing skills, and content area reading skills.

Students in grades 3 – 6 spend more time reading silently so a focus of the Title I program in these grade levels is to provide direct instruction in reading comprehension. Title I reading specialists use reading interventions that support students’ ability to successfully use comprehension skills such as finding the main idea, locating details in the story, and understanding how the text is structured and sequenced. In addition, there is a focus on broadening the students’ vocabulary skills. Title I teachers encourage students to read a variety of fiction and non-fiction stories. Title I teachers also teach students how to read more difficult science and social studies textbooks by sharing strategies that students can successfully use.

Classroom teachers and Title I reading specialists meet on a regular basis to discuss the reading progress of students who receive Title I supplemental reading services.
Title I Student Selection

In a Targeted Assistance Program, Title I students are selected to receive supplemental reading interventions based on multiple assessment criteria.

Students will enter and exit the Title I program using assessment criteria that has multiple data points—either repeated testing of a single measure (i.e. January-Spring-Fall DIBELS) or a combination of more than one assessment (i.e. DIBELS and LLI and running record). Students will be scheduled for services based on need—those most in need will be scheduled first.

Parents will receive a letter indicating that their child is eligible for Title I supplemental reading instructional support. In addition, parents will receive the results of initial and progress monitoring reading assessments. Two way communication between the Title I reading specialist and parents/guardians is fostered through parent phone calls, email communication, and face-to-face conferences. Reading specialists will communicate with parents/guardians on a frequent basis to share students’ progress in reading achievement.

Title I Parent and Family Engagement

Overview and Communication Opportunities

Parents/guardians are an important part of the Title I program and are partners with the school in helping students achieve success. Armstrong School District recognizes that academic success is positively impacted when parents/guardians become involved in their child’s education. Our staff is committed to partnering with parents/guardians to work together to improve student achievement.

The District and each of its schools with a Title I program shall provide communications, information and school reports to parents and family members who are migrants or who have limited English proficiency, a disability, limited literacy, or racial and ethnic minority backgrounds, in a language they can understand. (20 U.S.C. 6318, Policy 138)

Armstrong School District’s goal is to provide an academic program of the highest quality for our students. We endeavor to help all children meet proficient and advanced levels in literacy. A critical component to our students’ success is the on-going support and participation of our parents/guardians. We define parent and family involvement as an on-going process that assists families to meet their basic obligation as their children’s first educators, promotes clear two-way communications between home and school and supports parents as leaders and decision makers at all levels concerning the education of their children. It is our intention that this document will focus and refine our efforts in the area of parent involvement.

Annual Title I Parent Meeting

Title I Parent Involvement Background

ESSA defines parental involvement as the participation of parents in regular, two-way, and meaningful communication involving student academic learning and other school activities, including ensuring –

- that parents play an integral role in assisting their child’s learning;
- that parents are encouraged to be actively involved in their child’s education at school;
- that parents are full partners in their child’s education and are included, as appropriate, in decision-making and on advisory committees to assist in the education of their child; and
- that other activities are carried out as described in section 1118 of the ESEA, Parental Involvement. [Source: Section 9101(32), ESEA]

The Annual Title I Parent Meeting

Each school that receives Title I funds must hold an annual meeting for parents of participating children. In a Targeted Assistance Title I school, the meeting includes parents of children identified or eligible for Title I academic intervention services.

Besides providing a chance to get to know the parents, the meetings must be used to give parents information on the Title I program and provide parents opportunities to become involved with the school. These opportunities can include parenting trainings/ workshops, parent-teacher meetings, parent advisory councils, classroom/building volunteering, and other appropriate and meaningful activities.

During the Annual Title I Parent meeting, parents will review each of the following documents: 1) school level parent involvement policy/plan, 2) parent-school compact, 3) School Title I Transition Plan.

During this meeting, parents will learn about opportunities to be engaged in their child’s education at many levels such as:

- Opportunities for the Title I parent to help their child at home (ex: providing a quiet place for homework, getting kids to school on time)

- Opportunities to be involved in school-based activities (ex: tutoring, classroom volunteers, mentors, etc.)

- Opportunities for Title I parents to become active partners with the school policy and compacts and participate in the annual evaluation of the Title I program.
During the meetings parents complete a survey and contribute ideas regarding how they want their Title Parent and Family Engagement money to be spent at the school level.

Parents who are unable to attend the meeting are asked for feedback using a variety of communication methods including email, surveys, and phone calls to provide feedback/input into the parent involvement plans and compacts. Final versions of these documents will be disseminated using backpack mail, website, and Back to School meetings.

Title I Parent Resource Center

Each Title I school has a lending library center. This center has various games, books, take home packets, and literacy activities that parents can sign out and use at home with their child. Each year the reading specialists in each school showcase the items that are available for parents in the resource center. Parents are welcome to share ideas about additional resources that can be purchased for the resource center. Please see your child’s reading specialist for more information. In addition, parents can request literacy activities and information from the Midwestern IU4 Parent Resource Center. A simple form can be completed to request these materials and resources. The form is available on the Armstrong School District website under Departments/Title I/Parent Resource Center/Title I Parent Resource Center Order Form. It is also sent home via backpack mail.
Title I Parent/School Compact

The Parent School Compact will be jointly developed with parents and family members and the compact outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share in the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and the parents will build and develop partnerships to help children achieve the State’s high standards (ESSA, Section 1116(d)).

In order to develop and maintain positive communication and partnerships, each school develops a Parent/School Compact. This document outlines expectations for teachers, parents, and students to increase academic achievement. In the fall of each year, Title I teachers and parents of students receiving Title I services review and revise the Parent/School Compacts. The Compacts are disseminated to parents/guardians receiving Title I supplemental instructional services and are posted on the District and school websites.

Title I Annual Evaluation

Purpose

The purpose of the Title I Annual Evaluation is to formally meet with stakeholders (parents, classroom teachers, principals) to discuss the effectiveness of the Title I program by reviewing student achievement data, program delivery, and parents’ evaluations and recommendations. The Annual Title I Evaluation in the Armstrong School District occurs during the spring term.

District Level Title I Parent Meeting

A District level meeting with parents of Title I students is held at the annual Family Fun Night to gather information regarding the effectiveness of the Title I program. During this formal meeting, typically in April, parents discuss the effectiveness of the Title I program and offer suggestions for ways to improve the Title I program, its delivery of services, and parent involvement opportunities. During this meeting, parents design the District Parent and Family Engagement Policy for the upcoming school year. The District and parents of students participating in the Title I programs shall jointly develop and agree upon this written parent involvement policy. Parent feedback is also solicited from the district’s website.

School Level Title I Parent Meeting

Reading specialists meet with Title I parents in the spring term, typically in May, to evaluate Title I services and the district’s and school’s parent involvement policies. Input from parents at the school level is gathered using face-to-face meetings, surveys, phone calls, and postings on the school’s website. Information gathered during this spring evaluation with Title I parents is used to make modifications, revisions, or enhancements to Title I parent involvement opportunities, policy, and programs.

School Level Title I Meeting with Building Administrator and Teachers

Each Title I school reviews achievement data annually, typically in May, to assess the effectiveness of its Title I program. Those attending this annual evaluation include Title I teachers, classroom teachers, and building administrators who decide what is effective and what needs to be changed. Feedback from Title I parents is reviewed and used to make modifications and/or changes to the program delivery and parent involvement opportunities for the upcoming school year.

Once all feedback regarding the evaluation of the Title I program is gathered from Title I parents, classroom teachers, and building principals utilizing both district and school level opportunities, reading specialists come together to share data and information. The information gathered from Title I parents during both district and school level meetings, as well as survey data, informs the design of the District Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy.

TIPS for parents of Preschoolers

Read early and read often. The early years are critical to developing a lifelong love of reading. It's never too early to begin reading to your child! The tips below offer some fun ways you can help your child become a happy and confident reader. Try a new tip each week. See what works best for your child.

- Read together every day.
  Read to your child every day. Make this a warm and loving time when the two of you can cuddle close.

- Give everything a name.
  Build your child's vocabulary by talking about interesting words and objects. For example, "Look at that airplane! Those are the wings of the plane. Why do you think they are called wings?"

- Say how much you enjoy reading.
  Tell your child how much you enjoy reading with him or her. Talk about "story time" as the favorite part of your day.

- Read with fun in your voice.
  Read to your child with humor and expression. Use different voices. Ham it up!

- Know when to stop.
  Put the book away for awhile if your child loses interest or is having trouble paying attention.

- Be interactive.
  Discuss what's happening in the book, point out things on the page, and ask questions.

- Read it again and again.
  Go ahead and read your child's favorite book for the 100th time!

- Talk about writing, too.

- Point out print everywhere.
  Talk about the written words you see in the world around you. Ask your child to find a new word on each outing.

- Get your child evaluated.
  Please be sure to see your child's pediatrician or teacher as soon as possible if you have concerns about your child's language development, hearing, or sight.

Visit www.ReadingRockets.org for more information on how you can launch a child into a bright future through reading.
Play with letters, words, and sounds! Having fun with language helps your child learn to crack the code of reading. The tips below offer some fun ways you can help your child become a happy and confident reader. Try a new tip each week. See what works best for your child.

- Talk to your child.
  Ask your child to talk about his day at school. Encourage him to explain something they did, or a game he played during recess.

- Say silly tongue twisters.
  Sing songs, read rhyming books, and say silly tongue twisters. These help kids become sensitive to the sounds in words.

- Read it and experience it.
  Connect what your child reads with what happens in life. If reading a book about animals, relate it to your last trip to the zoo.

- Use your child’s name.
  Point out the link between letters and sounds. Say, “John, the word jump begins with the same sound as your name. John, jump. And they both begin with the same letter, J.”

- Play with puppets.
  Play language games with puppets. Have the puppet say, “My name is Mark. I like words that rhyme with my name. Doespark rhyme with Mark? Does bill rhyme with Mark?”

- Trace and say letters.
  Have your child use a finger to trace a letter while saying the letter’s sound. Do this on paper, in sand, or on a plate of sugar.

- Write it down.
  Have paper and pencils available for your child to use for writing. Working together, write a sentence or two about something special. Encourage your child to use the letters and sounds he or she is learning about in school.

- Play sound games.
  Practice blending sounds into words. Ask “Can you guess what this word is? m - o - p.” Hold each sound longer than normal.

- Read it again and again.
  Go ahead and read your child’s favorite book for the 100th time! As you read, pause and ask your child about what is going on in the book.

- Talk about letters and sounds.
  Help your child learn the names of the letters and the sounds the letters make. Turn it into a game! “I’m thinking of a letter and it makes the sound mmmmmmm.”

TIPS for parents of First Graders

Give your child lots of opportunities to read aloud. Inspire your young reader to practice every day! The tips below offer some fun ways you can help your child become a happy and confident reader. Try a new tip each week. See what works best for your child.

- Don’t leave home without it.
  Bring along a book or magazine any time your child has to wait, such as at a doctor’s office. Always try to fit in reading!

- Once is not enough.
  Encourage your child to re-read favorite books and poems. Re-reading helps kids read more quickly and accurately.

- Dig deeper into the story.
  Ask your child questions about the story you’ve just read. Say something like, “Why do you think Clifford did that?”

- Take control of the television.
  It’s difficult for reading to compete with TV and video games. Encourage reading as a free-time activity.

- Be patient.
  When your child is trying to sound out an unfamiliar word, give him or her time to do so. Remind your child to look closely at the first letter or letters of the word.

- Pick books that are at the right level.
  Help your child pick books that are not too difficult. The aim is to give your child lots of successful reading experiences.

- Play word games.
  Have your child sound out the word as you change it from mat to fat to sat: from sat to sat to sap: and from sap to sip.

- I read to you, you read to me.
  Take turns reading aloud at bedtime. Kids enjoy this special time with their parents.

- Gently correct your young reader.
  When your child makes a mistake, gently point out the letters he or she overlooked or read incorrectly. Many beginning readers will guess wildly at a word based on its first letter.

- Talk, talk, talk!
  Talk with your child every day about school and things going on around the house. Sprinkle some interesting words into the conversation, and build on words you’ve talked about in the past.

- Write, write, write!
  Ask your child to help you write out the grocery list, thank you note to Grandma, or to keep a journal of special things that happen at home. When writing, encourage your child to use the letter and sound patterns he or she is learning at school.

Visit www.ReadingRockets.org for more information on how you can launch a child into a bright future through reading.
Find ways to read, write, and tell stories together with your child. Always applaud your young reader and beginning story writer! The tips below offer some fun ways you can help your child become a happy and confident reader. Try a new tip each week. See what works best for your child.

- Tell family tales.
  Children love to hear stories about their family. Talk about a funny thing that happened when you were young.

- Create a writing toolbox.
  Fill a box with drawing and writing materials. Find opportunities for your child to write, such as the shopping list, thank you notes, or birthday cards.

- Be your child’s #1 fan.
  Ask your child to read aloud what he or she has written for school. Be an enthusiastic listener.

- One more time with feeling.
  When your child has sounded out an unfamiliar word, have him or her re-read that sentence. Often kids are so busy figuring out a word they lose the meaning of what they’ve just read.

- Invite an author to class.
  Ask an author to talk to your child’s class about the writing process. Young children often think they aren’t smart enough if they can’t sit down and write a perfect story on the first try.

- Create a book together.
  Fold pieces of paper in half and staple them to make a book. Ask your child to write sentences on each page and add his or her own illustrations.

- Do storytelling on the go.
  Take turns adding to a story the two of you make up while riding in a car or bus. Try making the story funny or spooky.

- Point out the relationship between words.
  Explain how related words have similar spellings and meanings. Show how a word like knowledge, for example, relates to a word like know.

- Use a writing checklist.
  Have your child create a writing checklist with reminders such as, “Do all of my sentences start with a capital? Yes/No.”

- Quick, quick.
  Use new words your child has learned in lively flash card or computer drills. Sometimes these help kids automatically recognize and read words, especially those that are used frequently.

TIPS for parents of Third Graders

Read about it, talk about it, and think about it! Find ways for your child to build understanding, the ultimate goal of learning how to read. The tips below offer some fun ways you can help your child become a happy and confident reader. Try a new tip each week. See what works best for your child.

- Make books special.
  Turn reading into something special. Take your kids to the library, help them get their own library card, read with them, and buy them books as gifts. Have a favorite place for books in your home or, even better, put books everywhere.

- Get them to read another one.
  Find ways to encourage your child to pick up another book. Introduce him or her to a series like The Boxcar Children or The Magic Tree House or to a second book by a favorite author; or ask the librarian for additional suggestions.

- Crack open the dictionary.
  Let your child see you use a dictionary. Say, “Hmm, I’m not sure what that word means... I think I’ll look it up.”

- Talk about what you see and do.
  Talk about everyday activities to build your child’s background knowledge, which is crucial to listening and reading comprehension. Keep up a running patter, for example, while cooking together, visiting somewhere new, or after watching a TV show.

- First drafts are rough.
  Encourage your child when writing. Remind him or her that writing involves several steps. No one does it perfectly the first time.

- Different strokes for different folks.
  Read different types of books to expose your child to different types of writing. Some kids, especially boys, prefer nonfiction books.

- Teach your child some “mind tricks”.
  Show your child how to summarize a story in a few sentences or how to make predictions about what might happen next. Both strategies help a child comprehend and remember.

- “Are we there yet?”
  Use the time spent in the car or bus for wordplay. Talk about how jam means something you put on toast as well as cars stuck in traffic. How many other homonyms can your child think of? When kids are highly familiar with the meaning of a word, they have less difficulty reading it.

Tips for Intermediate Readers

Our motto:

Give me fifteen!

15 Minutes a Day Goes a Long Way!

Even though your child can read on his/her own, it is important to continue to read/discuss with your child for 15 minutes a day. Short, regular sessions encourage the reading habit.

Use these 15 minutes in a variety of ways:

1. Have your child read aloud to you.
2. Read aloud to your child.
3. Read the same page silently and then discuss it.
4. Share the reading time by sitting together, each reading anything that is of interest, jokes, recipes, sports, poetry, biographies, etc.
5. At the end of 15 minutes, if your child wants to continue reading, by all means encourage your child to do so.
6. Either parent, or both, can be a reading partner- even grandparents, friends, and other relatives.
7. Build the right climate. Make it pleasant.
8. Create excitement.
9. Offer positive comments.
10. Read and discuss often.
